Unfortunately, our officials have decided to ram those deplorable conditions down our collective throats like it or not. For standing up for our sovereignty, I and other brave Americans have been labeled as 'Domestic Terrorists' by Browning and the ADL.

Of course, our founding fathers were labeled as such by the usurpers of liberty in their day as well. I suppose we have been talking and acting too much like them in our struggle for freedom. Times change. But values don't. Troy was sacked by a Trojan Horse. Sadly, Mesa is only being toppled by a pathetic Tijuana donkey and a small band of corrupt men like Gascon, Browning, and Kyle Jones. I only hope that someone returns this once great city's downtown back to the beauty it once was before I do leave. If not, I will see you all at the next Klan rally far, far from here. Wherever that is I do not know? We'll just have to ask the ADL. They seem to be the self-appointed experts leading the donkey around by the tail of who the real threats are supposed to be.

'Americans First' Leader Joins Neo-Nazi Protest

"J.T." Ready, a prominent Minuteman Civil Defense Corps volunteer and anti-immigration activist based in Phoenix, has been flitting around the edges of the neo-Nazi movement for more than a year now, quietly creating a profile on the racist social networking website New Saxon and attending a private gathering organized by the neo-Nazi organization National Vanguard.

But when the National Socialist Movement held an anti-immigration rally in Omaha, Neb., on Sept. 1, the leader of the Americans First nativist extremist group was making his public debut as a full-blown neo-Nazi. Photographs (above) captured a grinning Ready, clad in a grey business suit, standing side-by-side with NSM members who wore brown-shirt uniforms with swastika armbands. Any doubt that Ready was an open white supremacist, as well as a hard-line nativist, evaporated at that point.

"I was a guest speaker in Omaha," Ready said. "If I am a guest speaker at a Black Panther event, will you report that I am a black supremacist, too? I would be more than happy to speak at one of their [Black Panther] events. We have the very same enemy after all.”

Ready, who ran unsuccessfully for Mesa City Council, is a twice court-martialed ex-marine who received a bad conduct discharge. He fudged the biography he provided as a political candidate to a local newspaper. He was arrested for aggravated assault with a weapon and damage to property in Florida in 1992 and made headlines in March 2006 when he fired a gun at a Latino man.

A past president of Mesa Community College Republican Club, Ready appears in a video produced by former militia member and convicted felon Russ Dove in which he offers his own final solution to illegal immigration. Clad in a turtleneck and a skull-adorned do-rag, Ready says: “I may be the first one to advocate this but I firmly believe in having a mine field across the border. This is 100% effective.”

Hey Hillary Clinton spoke in front of the NAACP. Is she now BLACK?

When a person is invited to speak to educate or support a group it really does not mean you are a member of that group.

How about debates? If a person goes to a debate between two groups and speaks, is he/she then a member of both groups?

Please remember the “FREE PRESS” is not FREE it is wholly owned and manipulated by multi National Corporations aligned as the Council on Foreign Relations. They have an agenda, Mr. Ready is screwing with that agenda, so they have to try to discredit him. In any way possible.

Thoughts to ponder.

TAC: What are the top issues facing the state this year?

COLUMNISTS

JR: Loss of state's sovereignty due to Fed Ed, The FTAA (Free Trade Area of the Americas), Illegal Immigration, the blight of Infanticide (abortion), over spending, wasteful and unconstitutional governmental programs, and over taxation to pay for all of these things.

Bruce Barton:

JR: The same as above. We are innately linked to the problems facing our nation and state. However, the top issue currently facing LD-18 is in insuring that the RINOs masquerading as "conservatives" do not beat out the true patriots. We also must unite, educate and activate a strong conservative precinct committeeman base which will insure future conservative victories and legislative actions through grassroots awareness.

lower and control spending, and get the government out of its current unconstitutional roles. Furthermore, I pledge that if we do not have it I will not spend it. I will not break the back of our posterity and future generations by passing the buck to some other legislators' watch on down the line. If you decide to pick me as part of your conservative team to represent our principles, I will work with fellow conservatives to come up with viable methods for cleaning up the governess' all-day kindergarten, cradle-to-grave debacle.

Moreover, I solemnly pledge not to spend even one penny unless it is constitutional and necessary first. One cannot espouse conservative rhetoric of protecting the family and at the same time shackle to the family to insurmountable taxation. A monstrous government is one of the key juggernauts wreaking havoc on Arizona's families right now. I am Ready, willing and able to do battle with the big spenders who think that your family's hard-earned money is to be spent like an unaccountable credit card at some legislative country club.

TAC: What is your opinion of the 2004 state budget approved by the legislature this spring?

JR: Unconstitutional and criminal.

TAC: Do you support or oppose Prop 200, the PAN initiative?

JR: What part of ILLEGAL don't people understand? Of course I support the rule of law, and the elimination of fraud. Prop 200 is a positive step in the right direction. Our state has a great opportunity to cast a vote that will be heard around the world. We have had enough pilfering of our resources. We have had enough of the fraud and waste. We have had enough criminality and illegality. We are taking a stand and exercising our state's rights as granted by the 10th Amendment. This is not a "federal" problem. This is innately our problem. It is our schools, healthcare, neighborhoods, border, language, culture, taxes, security and sovereignty which are being trampled upon. The voters are now taking a resolute stand. I invite them to vote yes for Prop 200 with me. I invite Arizonans to fight for freedom with me. Let's take our country back!

TAC: How do you evaluate the legislative record of the incumbent(s) in the seat you are pursuing?

JR: Great!

Karen Johnson is the number one friend of the taxpayer, Russell Pearce is number two. Unfortunately, we have unconstitutional term limits in place which has forced Karen to run for the senate this year. The hiring and firing of our representatives should take place strictly at the ballot box or through lawful impeachment. I will work to overturn this unconstitutional mandate upon our voting choices. Being that I am running for an open seat now, and no one is entitled to it as per the free election process as well, I look forward to serving you diligently and with much vigor. There is one seat available for the Senate and two seats available for the House. You have several fine choices this year in true conservatives. You also have several RINO liberals as choices as well. I implore you to use your discernment and prayerfully consider your choices this year. Much is at stake. Our future hangs in this key balance of ideals. If you decide to elect J.T. Ready, I will work diligently with the Republican team of your choice to preserve our freedoms. Thank you.

TAC: If the Clean Elections initiative makes it on the ballot, will you support or oppose it?

JR: It is not making it to the ballot. However, I believe the entire system needs overhauling to include non-participatory candidates' regulations. We should be able to give whatever money we choose to our selected candidates. I am happy to be involved in this process and am open to suggestions from you, the conservative, on the best solutions in addressing this fundamental problem with our election process. You may contact my office directly to forward your ideas at: (480) 733-8800. After all, when elected, I will be working for you. Not the other way around.

TAC: How long can Arizona sustain the type of pressure on AHCCCS that raised the expenditure five-fold from 2001 to 2003, from $200 million to $1.2 billion?

JR: Just look at California and Mexico. Do we really want to head down this ill-fated road? We must not only hold the line on new taxes; we must reverse this disastrous trend, significantly reducing spending and eliminating unconstitutional socialist programs from our government.

TAC: How can Arizona improve its K-12 education

Rescue Without Borders Commentary by Ready from Occupied Arizona

By J.T. Ready, AZ Precinct Committeeman (West Mesa)

From the front lines of Mexico's Reconquista efforts on U.S. soil:

<http://www.eastvalleytribune.com/story/105839>

Matt Browning's so-called career here in law enforcement would be considered a sad joke in almost any city except for Mesa. Or L.A. In fact, many officers here have privately told me that he is a disgrace to their ranks. But we in Mesa have a regime that rewards the bait and switch game of blaming the very patriotic citizens who are defending liberty against the Council's failed schemes to achieve anything but destroying Mesa from within. We are lead to believe by this Anti-Defamation League groomed pawn Browning, that we Americans are in grave danger. True. But they maintain that our danger comes not from the MS-13 gangbanger army, the notorious Mexican Mafia, or Middle Easterners flooding across our border into our city. No, the ADL and Browning have testified at the legislature that it is instead the Ku Klux Klan, 'Skinheads', and 'Nazis' that pose the greatest threat to our liberty and way of life these perilous days. These outlandish proclamations would be most comical if the ADL did not hold so much sway over many of our current officials and their cabal of media moguls backing their every word as if it were delivered down from Mt. Sinai by Moses himself. But when is the last time you personally saw a KKK rally in our downtown parks? When have a band of Skinheads accosted you or your family going about your daily business? When is the last time you saw a squad of elite SS men throwing gang signs, selling dope to children in school, littering our streets and parks, or spraying graffiti on your businesses? I dare say never. But can we say the same about our not so docile guests from the south whom the ADL coddles? Hardly.

Every day we suffer at the feet and fists of the invaders perpetrated by the treason at the hands and mouths of our officials. The ultimate condition resulting from this subversion is a phenomenon known as 'White Flight' where mostly Anglo-Saxon Americans flee in droves away from the third world pouring in which we must subsidize with our tax monies and limited resources. To merely mention this predicament, however, labels me a vile 'racist' by the media pawns of the ADL and their ilk. So what? The facts are still the facts. I have lived right smack in the middle of the Ground Zero of Massive Illegal Immigration near Mesa Drive and Broadway now for eleven years. I have seen firsthand the horrible effects of the treason against this nation from within concerning the Anti-European American genocidal policies of both legal and illegal immigration. And I have fought with all my might against this onslaught despite the deep personal losses I have incurred as a result of standing up against this pure evil. And though the enemies of freedom here in Mesa will jump for joy in reading this, the day may soon come where I too shall see Mesa fading smaller into oblivion in my rearview mirror as I drive to a better, cleaner place like so many of my fine neighbors have already wisely done. If I wanted to live in gang-torn L.A. or some third world hellhole instead, I would have moved there already.

Homicide. I am an equal opportunity butt kicker!

TAC: General comments: Please comment on any issue or topic not raised above:

JR: You have the right to defend yourself. You have the right to defend your family. You have the right to protect your liberty and property. You may wish to rely on some government-paid stranger to swoop in and save the day, if you like. Ultimately however, the responsibility to save your own life depends on your ability to protect yourself, as well it should. Without this fundamental right all else that we stand for means absolutely nothing. Death and taxes are said to be certain. Well, dying at the hands of criminals or being a slave to taxes is not for me. I am the most pro-self defense candidate running for public office. I am a D.P.S. Certified Concealed Weapons Instructor and former Marine. JT Ready is the only candidate who consistently exercises this God-given right. I sincerely care about your rights because I sincerely care about my rights. I truly care about your life because I truly care about my life. I will fight to protect our rights as if my life depended on it. I will fight for you because my life does depend on it. Please Vote JT Ready. Ready to fight for You.

Intelligence Report
Spring 2008

The Nativists Page 18

Jason "J.T." Ready, 34
Mesa, Ariz.

A member of the Minuteman Civil Defense Corps as well as the founder of the prominent, Arizona-based nativist extremist organization Americans First, Jason "J.T." Ready advocates deadly force to stop Mexicans from crossing the U.S. border illegally. "I firmly believe in having a minefield across the border," he says in a widely distributed video. "This is 100% effective."

Jason "J.T." Ready

The past president of the Mesa Community College Republican Club and current Maricopa County Republican precinct committeeman, Ready is deeply involved in mainstream conservative politics. He's also an outright neo-Nazi. Ready spoke at a rally put on by the neo-Nazi National Socialist Movement in Omaha, Neb., last September (where he was billed as an "Arizona Republican activist") and appeared at the neo-Nazi National Vanguard's "Winterfest" gathering in Phoenix last December. He regularly posts to white nationalist online forums, including NewSaxon, where last December he offered this charming observation on the root causes of illegal immigration: "The truth is that negroids screw monkeys and rape babies in afreaka [sic]. Then stupid white man who licks kosher jew rear lets negroids in. ... Stop Negroid immigration and integration now!!! Nature will take care of the rest."

In 2006, Ready ran for Mesa City Council. He made headlines that March when he fired a pistol at a Latino man armed with a BB gun. Later, his campaign derailed when, shortly after Ready volunteered to act as master of ceremonies at the Mesa Veteran's Day parade, it came to light that Ready had been court-martialed and drummed out of the Marines.

Despite this embarrassment, Ready informed the Intelligence Report he plans to run for office again — even though he fears assassination. "They want to kill the patriot who is only a lowly dogcatcher long before he can expose the aliens who subvert freedom from within the halls of Congress or the White House," he said. "Though I want to live free and in peace, I am fully prepared to be murdered or falsely imprisoned for what I believe to be true."

And he may already have come up with a campaign slogan. Ready apparently sees himself as the new David Lane, riffing on the recently deceased white nationalist icon's notorious "14 words" with his own version, which Ready calls the 18 words: "The Purity of the Aryan Race is the most precious resource Nature has to offer All of Humankind."

Congressmen want J.T. Ready out of GOP post

by Gary Nelson - Aug. 21, 2008 08:39 AM
The Arizona Republic

Three Arizona Republican congressmen are calling for the removal of a low-level party official from Mesa, accusing him of being a neo-Nazi and sullyng the party's image.

J.T. Ready, who ran for Mesa City Council in 2006 and was elected a precinct committeeman in west Mesa's legislative District 18 later that year, is not fit to represent the party, the congressmen said.

Jeff Flake, John Shadegg and Trent Franks made their appeal in a letter to Tom Husband, chairman of the Maricopa County Republican Party, in a letter dated Tuesday.

"As you know," they wrote, "J.T. Ready is a member of the National Socialist Movement, better known as the neo-Nazis."

They said Ready was a featured speaker at a neo-Nazi conference in Omaha, Neb., in September 2007 and distributed racist and anti-Semitic literature at a county Republican meeting in January.

"We simply cannot allow Mr. Ready to serve out his term, even if that term were to expire next week," the letter says. "We need to take action now and send a message that such behavior has no place in the Republican Party."

Husband questioned both the premise and the timing of the letter.

"They make an assumption that is incorrect," Husband said.

"It says, 'as you know.' I certainly don't know of Mr. Ready's affiliation with neo-Nazis, and I am inviting them to submit evidence," Husband said.

If the evidence proves credible, Husband said he would entertain a motion calling for Ready's resignation.

But, he added, "the timing is just atrocious," because Ready is not running for re-election in the Sept. 2 primary and will be out of office soon thereafter. Husband said he would not be inclined to call a special party meeting to address the issue at this point, especially with so many members preparing for the national convention beginning Sept. 1.

He and Matt Tolman, Republican chairman in District 18, said the congressmen should have raised their concerns much earlier.

Tolman said Ready is among about 180 precinct committeemen who do much of the party's grassroots organizing in the district. "My concern is why are they bringing this up as an issue now rather than in January when the alleged incident occurred," Tolman said.

Flake told The Republic he would have acted earlier had he realized Ready was still holding office.

"I only recently found out that he was still a precinct committeeman," Flake said.

Ready has been a vocal and highly visible figure among Arizonans opposed to illegal immigration. Flake co-sponsored immigration reform legislation that failed last year in Congress.

Ready said immigration is the real reason the congressmen are calling for his ouster.

"It just shows that the same open-border lobby, they're showing their hand," Ready told The Republic. "They've sold out to the Zionists and the international bankers."

He said the congressmen "want to subvert the electoral process" that put him in office but added, "It's kind of a moot gesture for them to do" because he will soon leave office.

In addition to immigration, the story has another subtext - the sizzling District 18 Republican primary race between four-term state Rep. Russell Pearce and immigration lawyer Kevin Gibbons, who is Flake's brother-in-law. They are running for a state Senate seat being vacated by the retiring Karen Johnson, also a Republican.

Campaign literature distributed by some Gibbons supporters has claimed a close association between Pearce and Ready. One mailer shows Pearce and Ready standing side-by-side during a June 2007 anti-immigration rally at the state Capitol.

Pearce said last week he did not know of Ready's neo-Nazi affiliations at the time of the rally.

A long list of endorsements on Pearce's campaign Web site does not contain Ready's name. Although Ready ran against Pearce in the 2004 legislative primary, Pearce endorsed Ready when the latter ran for City Council in the spring of 2006.

Flake said the District 18 race played no part in his calling for Ready's ouster.

"I know some will say it's because of this race coming up. Jeff's brother-in-law is running against Russell Pearce," Flake said. But he said he had not talked to Gibbons about the anti-Ready letter.

"This was not done at anybody's behest," Flake said. "We've got to turn this party around and I feel guilty myself for not having stepped up sooner."

system and lower the high school dropout rate?

JR: More home schooling. More church and private schooling. Creating a more competitive school system. Eliminate costly overhead administrative costs. Eradicate the stifling public education bureaucracy which has taken a grip on our children's future by the jugular. Tax credits and refunds to parents increased immediately. School choice and vouchers offered as an additional option. Get rid of Goals 2000, No Child Left Behind, and Fed Ed which is unconstitutional to begin with. Put parents back in charge of their own children's future. Stop overburdening and destroying families through over-taxation. Allow those families who wish to have a stay-at-home parent to still have that as a viable option. Deal with this mass illegal influx of foreign students who do not even embrace the same language and culture as Americans and who spread tuberculosis, whooping cough, lice, and other third-world biological diseases to other children. And remind our "governess" that she has no children. The State of Arizona has no children. The children belong to their parents. Not to the state. Cradle-to-grave governmental interference is completely unacceptable in my book.

TAC: What social issues legislation is needed in 2005?

JR: As long as we permit the murdering for profit of innocent Americans through infanticide (abortion) in our nation and state, a dark spiritual shadow will continue to linger over our conscience as a people. By electing JT Ready this September, you will guarantee that these little innocent ones have a real fighter in their corner down at the legislature. Their silent cries will be heard resonating throughout the capitol as we bring awareness to this very pressing issue. Also, it is critically vital that we recognize God and God-ordained marriage as the bedrock of our freedoms and liberties today. I will work diligently to insure God is recognized as from whom our supreme rights to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of happiness solely emanate from.

TAC: Women candidates only: Are you member of, or do you support the WISH List?

JR: I do not agree that this should be a sexist issue. We are talking about the protection of life here. I look forward to exposing this Planned Parenthood-sponsored rabid femi-nazi group for who they really are. The W.I.T.C.H. List. Women Initiating Total Child
